

CMS Program Applicant: _____

Capacity in which you know applicant:

Please comment on the following where applicable. Feel free to make additional comments.

1. TEACHING SKILLS

A. Class content (e.g., knowledge and control of subject matter, preparation, organization of class time, appropriate materials)

B. Presentation and interaction with students (e.g., comprehensibility, pacing, sensitivity to students' questions and confusions, ability to stimulate student involvement)

C. Other teaching skills (e.g., grading and response to student work, conferencing or other individual tutorial work, awareness of individual differences)

2. ATTITUDE

A. Availability, responsibility, and cooperation with other teachers as well as with administrators

B. Ability to take initiative without exceeding the limits of course goals, content, and established procedures.

3. KNOWLEDGE OF THE FIELD

A. Familiarity with theory, methods, techniques, materials, and resources.

B. Familiarity with the language—the forms and functions, and the linguistic analysis of English phonology, morphology, syntax and discourse.

4. POTENTIAL AS A TEACHER IN THIS PROGRAM

Strength of academic background, breadth of training, ability to teach a range of courses, ability to train other teachers, etc.

Writer's signature _____ Date _____

Writer's name _____

Writer's position _____

Return this form to HUM 112 or to: CMS Coordinator, CMS Program, San Francisco State University, 1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94132